MAKING WAR ON HESSIAN PEST

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Anticipating the possibility this spring of another of the numerous destructive outbreaks of the Hessian fly in the wheat fields of the country, the department of agriculture has made ready to combat it. Through appropriation by congress, funds for the work were increased sufficiently to provide for the principal needs and three stations for the purpose of systematic study have been established at Carlisle, Pa., Centralia, Ill., and Wichita, Kan.

FAMOUS PEOPLE ATTEND BEATTY MASKED BALL

Never in the history of southern Nevada have so many famous characters assembled as collected at the Beatty opera house on the evening of March 17 to do honor to the memory of St. Patrick, it being the occasion of the masquerade ball given under the auspices of the Beatty Improvement association, of Beatty.

Shortly after sunset, automobiles began rolling up and from them alighted characters familiar to every household in the United States, and others whose reputations have embellished the pages of history.

Surely such a distinguished gathering could not fail to warm the cockles of St. Patrick's heart, and if there is anything to the present day tradition of spirit manifestation, the residents of Beatty have only to call upon St. Patrick and he should be willing to return and drive all the snakes out of that progressive little community.

From as far north as Tonopah, and as far south as Death Valley, Imperial, Calif., parties motored to Beatty to join in the celebration, and with the more sedate members of the community enjoyed watching the arrival of the historic personages as they entered the hall.

Among the first to arrive was a Chinese mandarin representing the first emperor of the Ming dynasty, closely followed by an immortal personage than one immortal hero, George Washington. Enough callers were present to constitute a staff equivalent to that which the navy department so generously assigned to Admiral Sims upon his departure for England, while the number of soldiers present almost equalled them.

Uncle Josh and Cy Perkins arrived early, and there were the usual number of Harlequins mingling with feminists. Quaker maids, flower girls, baller dancers, Zulu maids and Indian princesses, while stately Colonial dames lent their presence but apparently frowned upon the frivolous, and the president of the association was found disporting himself as a longshoreman.

Among this motley assemblage Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs and Mutt and Jeff added spice to the evening's entertainment. Jiggs, playing Maggie's watchful eye, succeeded in monopolizing the attention of the ladies, much to the discomfort of Mutt and Jeff.

The judges awarded the following prizes: To the best costumed feminine character, Miss Dorothy Williams, of Pioneer, who took the part of a corymbous looking petite and most attractive in a paper costume; to the best costumed male character, Harry Johnson, of Beatty, who represented Pierrot; to the best costumed feminine character impersonation sustained throughout the evening, Mrs. R. P. Aylward of Beatty, who, taking the part of a Chinese princess, appeared most re-ginal in her flowing robes and royal headdress; to the best costumed male character impersonation, underlined throughout the evening by Jiggs Crowell, of Beatty, who represented Mr. Jiggs, while Maggie was admirably impersonated by Miss Florence Kimball, to the best ac-

(By Associated Press)

EDMONTON, Alta., March 20.—Applications for leases on oil and natural gas areas covering approximately 200,000 acres in northern Alberta have been filed with the Dominion government land office recently.

The rush has centered in the area along the Athabasca river between Indian Rapids and Horse River, and around Birch Lake, south and east of Innisfree. Another popular district lies about Great Slave Lake, where leases have been taken in the MacKenzie river delta near Bear
